

Founded in 1956, Howrey LLP, is an international law firm with over 600 attorneys and more than 50 economic, financial, and environmental consultants. Howrey is one of the most frequently used law firms in the nation among Fortune 250 companies according to the National Law Journal's survey of "Who Represents Corporate America?" Howrey's Intellectual Property practice has frequently been ranked as one of the nation's #1 IP practice by IP Law & Business and has consistently topped Global Competition Review's GCR 100 survey of the world's competition/antitrust practices.

Howrey has fourteen offices - in Washington, DC, the headquarters; Northern Virginia; Los Angeles, Irvine, East Palo Alto and San Francisco, California; Houston, Texas; Chicago, Illinois; Salt Lake City, Utah; London, England; Brussels, Belgium; Paris, France; Amsterdam, The Netherlands and Taipei, Taiwan. Howrey's primary practice groups are Intellectual Property, Antitrust and Global Litigation.

In addition to its formidable reputation among the world's leading law firms, Howrey is justly proud of its record in the field of pro bono representation. Last year alone, Howrey attorneys and staff contributed more than 55,000 hours to pro bono matters and has been recognized for its leadership by the many state bar associations and independent groups, such as the Public Counsel of Los Angeles and The Judge David L. Bazelon Center for Mental Health Law in Washington DC. Recently, Howrey was ranked by American Lawyer #10 nationally in Pro Bono.

Howrey is "Where Leaders Go" for expertise in intellectual property, antitrust, and complex business dispute resolution. It is also where the poor can go when they need help.

For more information, visit our website: <http://www.howrey.com>