SPROUT FILM FESTIVAL

Our 7th annual Sprout Film Festival was held May 1 - 3 at the NYC Metropolitan Museum of Art. With 26 amazing films, Sprout was honored to bring such an important message and raise awareness about people with developmental disabilities to over 1,100 people. Of course, with the high attendance of persons with disabilities in the audience, the message and good feelings of empowerment was another benefit of the festival.

SPROUTSTOCK 2009

Our summer schedule of vacations is pretty much filled up. However, there are still openings on our 14th annual Sproutstock with exciting new activities, bands and surprises. We will be returning to our favorite resort located in upstate New York.

Exclusively for Sprout participants, the Sproutstock music festival is an entire weekend (Friday July 24 – Sunday July 26) of live music, delicious food, games, movies, outdoor activities and dancing with more than 150 participants in attendance.

Please contact Scott Randall if you are interested in registering a consumer.
