

Instructions for completing the worksheet

1) Please chose from the dropdown lists in columns A-C and F

DRC NOTE: Column F requires narrative. The drop-down options of 1, 2, 3 do not align with Title 17 Com

2) Please be consistent with data entered in columns D, E, G and H

3) Please do not total counts by regional center and / or types

4) For each reporting period, please submit ONLY the data for the last 6 months.

5) If you have any questions about this worksheet please email maxine.milan@dds.ca.gov plaint Reporting. DRC removed the drop-down list options and converted to a narrative format.

[illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]

Nature of Complaint

P.B. alleged the community care facility (group home) wrongfully denied their right to personal property and to make and

A.L. alleged community care facility (group home) improperly denied their right to personal property - their cell phone. 1

R.D. alleged community care facility (group home) improperly denied their right to make confidential calls, protected by :

R.D. alleged the community care facility (group home) improperly denied their rights to personal items, a right protected

[illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]

Outcome

OCRA found the group home did deny the rights but showed good cause for the denial.

OCRA found the group home did not have good cause to deny the right to personal property (cell phone)

OCRA found the home did not have good cause to deny confidential calls and to limit when R.D. left the home.

OCRA found the home had good cause to deny R.D.'s access to personal items due to the risk of harm.

[illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]