Questions to Ask The Provider

How long have they been in practice?
Licenses or Certifications
How much do they charge – sliding scale?
What is their training?
What is their treatment philosophy?
How does your type of treatment work?
Communication Style

When you ask a question how do they respond?
Do they welcome your questions?
Do they answer in a way you understand?
Do they consider you treatment preferences?
Do they respect your decision-making process?

Important Things to Talk About

Fears about therapy not working
Importance of your cultural identities
If you think therapy is not going well
When you feel uncomfortable
If they hurt your feelings

Is My Therapist A Good Fit?

Do you like your Therapist?
Do you connect with your Therapist?
Do you feel understood and heard?
Are you comfortable talking with them?
Do you trust them
Do you feel safe with them?
More - Is My Therapist A Good Fit?

Do they listen to me?
Does the Therapist have empathy for what I'm going through?
Do I feel I'm making progress?

Speak Up If You Don’t Feel Heard

Not feeling heard? SPEAK UP
Say something like, “No, you don’t understand. What I’m saying is. . .”

If You Decide to See a Different Therapist

Don’t just stop
Tell your therapist why you are quitting
Maybe the issue can be worked out
If not, ask for a referral
It might provide you closure
