21 Attorneys for Plaintiffs

22 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
23 CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA – SOUTHERN DIVISION

24 ORANGE COUNTY CATHOLIC
25 WORKER,

26 Plaintiffs,

27 v.

28 ORANGE COUNTY, et al.,

Defendants.

CASE NO. 8:18-cv-00155 DOC (JDE)
FINAL 8/8 CV-00220-DOC (KES)
[PROPOSED] ORDER RE: SETTLEMENT CERTIFICATION OF
A 23(b)(2) CLASS, AND RETENTION
OF JURISDICTION

1 Before the Court is the Proposed Order approving the joint Settlement 2 entered into by all parties in Orange County Catholic Worker, et al. v. County of 3 Orange, Case No. 8:18-cv-00155 DOC, and by the Peoples Homeless Task Force
4 (PHTF), the organizational plaintiff in Ramirez v. County of Orange, Case No.
5 2:18-cv-01027. The Settlement incorporates by reference Attachment A,
6 “Standards of Care” to be adopted and implemented by the County.

7 Approval of the Settlement and Retention of Jurisdiction

8 The Court has reviewed the Settlement and Attachment A signed by the 9 parties. The Settlement signed by the parties, along with Attachment A, is hereby 10 incorporated by reference in this Order A as though fully set forth hereat.

11 The Court retains jurisdiction to enforce the terms of the Settlement as 12 agreed to by the parties, including implementation of the Dispute Resolution 13 Process, for the period of time specified in the Settlement.

14 The Settlement provides that the parties will attempt to resolve the amount 15 of attorneys’ fees and costs to be paid to Plaintiffs’ counsel, as well as the amount 16 of damages to be paid to the individual Plaintiffs in OCCW and Ramirez. If the 17 parties are unable to reach agreement on some or all of these issues, Plaintiffs will 18 file a motion with the Court for reasonable fees and costs, as well as damages. The 19 Court retains jurisdiction to consider such a motion.

20 Certification of a Class Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(2)

21 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 23 allows a court to certify a matter as a 22 class action where “[o]ne or more members of a class ... sue ... as representative 23 parties on behalf of all members only if: (1) the class is so numerous that joinder of 24 all members is impracticable; (2) there are questions of law or fact common to the 25 class; (3) the claims or defenses of the representative parties are typical of the 26 claims or defenses of the class; and (4) the representative parties will fairly and 27 adequately protect the interests of the class.” Fed. R. Civ. 23(a).

1 If each of the elements of Rule 23(a) is satisfied, the Court next considers 2 whether and what type of class may be certified. The Court must evaluate whether 3 “(1) prosecuting separate actions by or against individual class members would 4 create a risk of: (A) inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual 5 class members that would establish incompatible standards of conduct for the party
6 opposing the class; or (B) adjudications with respect to individual class members 7 that, as a practical matter, would be dispositive of the interests of the other 8 members not parties to the individual adjudications or would substantially impair 9 or impede their ability to protect their interests.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b).

10 In addition, the Court must consider whether “(2) the party opposing the 11 class has acted or refused to act on grounds that apply generally to the class, so that 12 final injunctive relief or corresponding declaratory relief is appropriate respecting 13 the class as a whole; or (3) the court finds that the questions of law or fact common 14 to class members predominate over any questions affecting only individual 15 members, and that a class action is superior to other available methods for fairly 16 and efficiently adjudicating the controversy.” Id.

17 The Court has considered the following factors in determining that a class 18 may be certified in this instance pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(2):

- 19 (A) the class members’ interests in maintaining or defending separate 20 actions on these issues are outweighed by the interests of the class in the 21 benefit from the Settlement;
- 22 (B) the Court and the parties are unaware of any other litigation by or 23 against class members concerning this controversy; and,
- 24 (C) concentrating the litigation of these claims before the Court is 25 desirable to facilitate a consistent and regional solution to a significant issue 26 affecting multiple communities;

27
28

1 Pursuant to the terms of the Settlement and Federal Rules of Civil Procedure
2 23(b)(2), the parties stipulated to, and request the Court approve, the certification
3 of a Class of Plaintiffs defined as:

4 "All current and future homeless individuals located in the Northern and 5 Central SPA of the County."

6 The Court accepts the definition of the injunctive relief class proposed by 7 the parties and understands that the definition is intended to be as broad as possible 8 to incorporate the claims, issues and defenses raised by the operational pleadings in 9 both OCCW and Ramirez that are the subject of, and agreed to, in the Settlement
10 and Attachment A. Specifically, the Settlement incorporates a Dispute Resolution
11 Process to resolve any issues arising from the matters covered by the Settlement 12 and Attachment A during the period of the Court's retained jurisdiction. The 13 Settlement provides that, for any disagreement concerning a matter covered by the 14 Settlement, including procedures in Attachment A, notice of the Dispute
15 Resolution Process and the availability of Plaintiffs' counsel to provide assistance 16 will be given to any person experiencing homelessness who has such a dispute.

17 The Court finds that the defendant has acted or refused to act on grounds 18 that apply generally to the class, so that final injunctive relief is appropriate
19 respecting the class as a whole. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b). Because the primary relief
20 sought by Plaintiffs in and provided by the Settlement is injunctive relief, class 21 certification under Rule 23(b)(2) is appropriate. Zinser v. Accuflix Research Inst.
22 Inc., 253 F.3d 1180, 1195 (9th Cir. 2001). Although the individual plaintiffs in 23 OCCW and Ramirez seek monetary damages, the benefit to the class is solely 24 injunctive relief. The Court finds that the individual damages are "merely 25 incidental to [the] primary claim for injunctive relief." Id.

26 Appointment of Class Counsel

27 Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(g), the Court must appoint counsel to 28 represent the interests of the class members and prosecute the case. The Court

1 appoints attorneys Carol Sobel for OCCW and Lili Graham for Ramirez as class
2 counsel. The Court has had the opportunity to engage with each extensively 3 during the course of this litigation and is confident that they will fulfill the 4 obligations of class counsel capably and responsibly. In making this selection, the 5 Court considers the following factors: “(i) the work counsel has done in identifying 6 or investigating potential claims in the action; (ii) counsel’s experience in handling 7 class actions, other complex litigation, and the types of claims asserted in the 8 action; (iii) counsel’s knowledge of the applicable law; and (iv) the resources that 9 counsel will commit to representing the class.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(g)(1)(A).

10 Notice to the Class Is Waived

11 “For any class certified under Rule 23(b)(1) or (b)(2), the court may direct 12 appropriate notice to the class.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2)(A). The requirement to 13 provide notice of a class settlement certified under Rule 23(b)(2) is within the 14 discretion of the Court. The Court finds in this instance that the class may be 15 certified without notice to the putative class members.

16 Accordingly, for the foregoing reasons, the Court approves the Settlement
17 entered into by the parties and enters this Order, retaining jurisdiction to enforce 18 the terms of the Settlement Agreement during the period of time set out in the 19 Agreement.
